

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

IN RE: JUUL LABS, INC., MARKETING,
SALES PRACTICES, AND PRODUCTS
LIABILITY LITIGATION

Case No. 19-md-02913-WHO

Case Nos. 19-cv-6344, 19-cv-_____

This Document Relates to:

NesSmith, et al. v. Altria Group, Inc. et al.

Shapiro, et al. v. Altria Group, Inc., et al.

ORDER RE MOTION TO SHORTEN
TIME AND MOTION TO ENFORCE
PRETRIAL ORDER

Re: Dkt. Nos. 25, 26

Defendants seek an order shortening time (Dkt. No. 26), to be heard on their Motion to Enforce Pretrial Order #1. Dkt. No. 25. Plaintiffs have also sought relief in the Florida state court proceeding at issue (Feldman). Defendants shall file a notice by 3:00 p.m. Friday, October 18, 2019, informing me as to the status of their motion for a protective order and to quash in the Feldman case in Florida.

Plaintiffs' counsel in the NesSmith and Shapiro cases pending before me as part of the MDL, who apparently are also plaintiff's counsel in the Feldman case in Florida, shall file a statement by 12:00 p.m. Friday, October 18, 2019, responding to defendants' request for action or other relief by this Court. The matter will then be considered under submission.

The hearing noticed for Friday, October 18, 2019 is VACATED.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: October 16, 2019

William H. Orrick
United States District Judge